The Living Dead HUNGARY

By Gyula L. Pinter

Translated from the Hungarian language, written exclusively for Common Sense by a Hungarian exile now living in Austria.

—Colonial exploitation of the Hungarian economical life.

—The perishing 1000 year old Hungarian culture.

—The terror regime of Jewish conspirators and Hungarian traitors.

—The shaken confidence of a great historical nation in her sons and friends.

Hardly any week goes by that politicians
do not mention or newspapers do not quote the 1956 Hungarian Revolution. Certain world events, even today are mentioned and explained parallel with this historical significant event.

Since then, in the eyes of the World,
Hungary became a political social laboratory and through the experiments in the laboratory, they try to understand the human mind undergoing changes, its nature, its goals and its consequences.

There are four conclusions:

Since these events are directed by the bloody hand of the Soviet, the laboratory examinations put the spot light on the Soviet-Communist system. Those who, after the investigation, have the proper logic and moral strength—can draw, four conclusions.

First: Communism is attractive only in the first minutes to those who are not properly educated or to those who suffer mental or moral shortcomings. With sound mind and moral, one can reject it on the first hearing.

Whenever, because of some fatal human fault, communism can get a foothold in a country, it soon will be recognized that only with terror is it able to remain in power.
Their justice is only a seeming justice; it reflects only lies, which is already recognized even by primitive people.

Second: No individual, no people or nation can live without freedom. Freedom must be guarded by everyone because when it is once lost, it is only through greatest suffering, sacrifices and martyrdom can it be regained.

Third: The few days freedom of the crushed
Hungarian revolution should be a warning to all peoples, even to the rich and powerful, that the rules of the Bolshevik "peaceful existence" are compulsory only for the "other" countries. This slogan is used by the communists only for their propaganda purpose. Those who have doubts, should watch the changing events, read Lenin's and Stalin's books in which they wrote the dogmas of world conquest.

In these writings one will find that communism will not give up its goal in any form. In these books also one will find detailed tactical instructions about promoting and furthering communism.

Fourth: In the background of Bolshevik—expansionist world crisis—one will find a group of Jewish plotters, who are working unitedly, on both sides of the Iron Curtain,

in the hope that when the hour will strike,
they will direct world communism.

Peter Erdos, one of the Hungarian so-called "Jewish intellectuals", a communist leader said in Budapest a few days before the 1956 Oct. revolution: "In the countries, which are living under communism, there is a reaction developing against the Russian Bolshevik Dictatorship. Therefore a new Marxist direction is needed so that this counter effect should not lead into the other extremity, namely nationalism!"

This declaration explains why Jewry didn't take part in the Hungarian peoples uprising.
This group's aim was only to loosen up the bolshevik grip on the Marxist theory. They wanted to form Marxism for their own use, the so-called "Jewish World Power."
When the revolution broke out, already in the first hours of that evening, it became apparent that it was getting out of the Marxist line.

The Marxist Jews, with every means of communications, in words and writings, were opposing the revolution. "Stop the bloodshed!" they shouted, when the Hungarian people wanted to get rid of their oppressors.

THE HUNGARIAN REVOLUTION NATIONAL PROGRAM

The Jewish hoodlums knew if this revolution wins, Marxism will cease to exist in Hungary.

As the "Reinischer Merkur", a west German newspaper, on Dec. 28, 1956, in an article titled "Nash-Kommunisten," said:
"This is a new type of anti-communism.
The thinking of our nation's older politicians stopped at communism, but we have already gone beyond communism,
in destroying three brilliant ideas,
human freedom, social justice and the wonderful vision of the Hungarian revolutionists, the idea of the solidarity of peoples,—
the future of Humanity."

The Jewish group knew if the revolution wins there would be a great investigation about the responsibility of a decade of communist terror and torturing atrocities in Hungary, because they were the ones sitting in all key positions of a bankrupt system. With all their power they tried to stop the unfolding revolution.

In Hungarian communist literary circle,
Petofi Kor, one of their leaders, Tancos Gabor, a few days before the Russians returned to Hungary, said over the Budapest Radio: "Don't fight! The Russians are leaving Budapest, I saw it!" In these hours the revolution's final victory was near, the Kilian military headquarters was safely in the hands of the Rebels and the Russians were evacuating the city.

AFTER THE REVOLUTION WAS CRUSHED

The following days events are still in the memories of everyone. The Russians returned with a powerful army, 5,000 tanks,
a quarter of a million soldiers, destroyed
the city, crushed the revolution and arrested the revolutionary government. Behind the Russian tanks the Jewish hoodlums returned from their hiding places and just like before under Rakosi-Gero regime—again occupied all the key positions.

With this, a new era of terror began in Hungary, which today's life can be characterized in 5 points:

- 1 Hate warfare — rounding up freedom
fighters.
- 2 Farmers forced into collective farms.
- 3 The entire Hungarian economical life
is melted into an Iron Curtain Unity.
- 4 The annihilation of the National Culture.
- 5 The legalized abortion — a systematic genocide!!

The "new life" started in the beginning of 1957 when the terror succeeded to break down the many months long general strike, which was a protest against the return of the Communist Army. The strike was broken, at industrial main points, by a strategically planned starvation. The bombarded and damaged houses (by the Soviet tanks) were hastily repaired on the main streets of Budapest, the debris was cleared but the side streets and the outskirts of the city are still shocking views. They started the house to house searching, deporting young men and women by the ten thousands to Siberia and even to Red China.

At home, the endless number of court cases are still going on even today, against those who wanted freedom. Very often a case ended with execution.

Drastically abolished as one of the greatest achievements of the revolution: the freely elected Workers Council system. In its place they organized the so-called, armed "Workers Guard"—recruited from ex-convicts and the trash of the country.

There are no accurate figures of victims of the massacre, but according to witnesses and world experts, estimations, there are about 60,000 dead, 75,000 sent to Siberia, arrested, or in prison. A great portion of these victims are school age youths.

Execution of children of 15-16 years old are not rare. Forty-seven thousand boys between 12-20 were put in box cars and sent to Siberia.

TRAGEDY OF HUNGARIAN PEASANTS

When the revolution broke out, the collective farms were disbanded immediately and the farmers returned to their previously owned land. By the time the Soviet Army returned, there were no more, or few, "Kolkhoz" left. But, even after the revolution the farmers didn't give up the fight for their land. To the Hungarian farmer his land is not only his existence, it is his freedom, his independence. The communists know this and that's why they took it away, not only for economical reasons but for political also. The recollectivization of the land didn't go without resistance. Terror raids were sweeping the villages, especially in the western part of the country where the better-to-do educated farmers had the scientifically cultivated lands.

Trained agitators went out from the city to the farmlands and began to "soften up" the resisting farmers! Their tactics were: talkings, threats, arrests, beatings, murders, until the most stubborn couldn't take it any longer. In this land, where in democratic or parliamentaristic way could never force the farmers into collectives—here the communists bloody terror accomplished victory! Many farmers in their desperate, hopeless situation committed suicide. Some of them hanged themselves on trees along highways and railroads as terrible warnings to the travelers. And all this made possible by the indifference of the West.

In Dec. 1956, there were only 1,617 collective farms in Hungary, mostly demoralized. Under the new campaign they collectivized an additional 1,359 villages, 1,508 collective farms. At present the communist government's goal is the collectivization of 60-80% of the farms. This unnatural spread of collectivization impoverished the whole country.

This little country, before the second World War supplied Germany, Austria, Switzerland, for many years, Italy and other countries with food; today, depends on other countries in meat, grain and fruit. But this is not all, this is only preparation for the second attack. According to official party communique: Hungary can take part in the Soviet seven year plan on one condition, that Hungary's agriculture must be collectivized 100%!

To realize this program, without the necessary farm equipments and machinery, one can imagine the misery this country is facing, when they will have the added burden to supply East Germany with food, on communist order, when they have not enough for themselves.

Just to compare the Hungarian farmers living standard with the American farmers: In the 3,000 villages of Hungary, there is not a single automobile. There are very few radios and televisions are non-existing.

THE COLONIZATION OF THE HUNGARIAN INDUSTRY

At the same time the communists are organizing the industry into a so-called "Mutual Economical Unity" which will cripple the entire Iron Curtain industry. They first aim to place the Iron Curtain Countries industry into the service of the Soviet seven year plan, which will give a big lift to the Soviet peoples life standard. If in seven years there still will be a Soviet Union, and the Soviet will fulfill its seven year plan, we can add up the gains by the Soviet Union and discount the propaganda statistics, we will have a clear picture, just how deep will it sink the Iron Curtain captives countries life standard.

The second aim: To break down the satellite countries independence, disperse the production among the small nations that they shouldn't be able to produce without each other and keep them dependent entirely on the Soviet Union. This plan will be completed by the proposed oil pipe lines and high-tension electric power plants which will be the only industrial energy to the satellite countries and which also can be cut off by pressing a button in case of a riot or revolution.

EVERYTHING SERVES THE SOVIET INTEREST

Jeno Fock (a Red Jew) announced the Hungarian obligation in the Soviet's seven year plan. According to a categorical Moscow order, that the Hungarian export 60-80% can be negotiated only through the "Mutual Economical Unity." Out of this, 70% goes to "socialist" countries and 30% to the Soviet Union and the same amount must be doubled during the calendar year. What Jeno Fock doesn't say, that this 30% is delivered for a minimum, real colonial price, as it was done in the last 14 years.

The fulfillment of the obligation, says Fock, necessitates great transformations.

- 1 More investments mainly in the tool-making industry.
- 2 Important regrouping of industries in order to produce the necessary items.
- 3 Urgent collectivization of the land.
- 4 Production of electric machinery, diesel-motors, precision-instruments, machines for food industry, etc. In order that this work should be accomplished, the electric energy production must be increased 60%, 80-90% the machine industry,

- RULER -

After communism captured Hungary again RAKOSI was released from prison and placed at the head of the government where he ruled in luxury. He then used terror and murder in ruling the Hungarians.

200% the precision industry, and 400% the chemical and food industry.

These are a few items but demand is so high that it is very doubtful if not impossible to fulfil. How will the communist accomplish all this?

Mainly with work-competition, to drive the worker to his utmost, to drain out the last drop of energy. And the reward? . . . Jeno Fock promises this way: "The Soviet Union's life standard in 7 years will be very high, we can not increase our National income to their level". Of course not! Those who are robbed will always have less than the one who robs. And the bandit Soviet Union after 7 years will loudly boast how rich they are,—richer than the U.S.A.!

JEW OPPORTUNIST — EVERYWHERE.

In this reorganization, the Rakosi-era's sad puppets, the Jewish communists take their part: Berger Andor, Friss Istvan, Appelbaum Antol, Munich Ferenc, Weinberger Zoltan, Gyáros Laszlo, Kahana Jozsef and to add to this bouquet Kadar Janos, Marosaw Gyorgy and many others who are the most hated enemy of the Hungarian people.

PERSECUTION OF THE CHRISTIANS.

Today the Hungarian people's religious faith is deeper than ever before. Abandoned by the rich and strong west, their faith in God is their only refuge. The Communists want to take away even their faith from them. Persecuting their leaders. Following Christ saying: "Beat the Pastor and the herd will disperse".

The communists could win over to their propaganda only a few priests, the so-called "peace-priests" but the people are boycotting their churches and they are "ex-communicated" by the Vatican. The people are filling the churches of their loyal priests, the ones who are serving the church under constant threat of arrest, death or at best losing church function.

Here we can mention, that one never heard or read about the slightest offense to synagogues by the communists. The communist education is also waging war against Christian teaching in the homes. Party officials are complaining that the parent's reactionary clerical views are destroying the communist spirited education.

THE COMPLETE BANKRUPTCY COMMUNIST IDEOLOGY

Admitted by the communists, the reorganization of the party ended with a negative. The party membership is far below the number 3 years ago. At present the communist party is following a "second line" tactics. They put weak, frightened puppets to the front like Kadar or Marosan.

The real leaders are those whose names rarely come up and only in connection with insignificant events. They remain behind the scene.

The organization of the youth is more hopeless than the adults, because they are not threatened with worries like their parents.

NO MORE HUNGARIAN CULTURE.

It is no wonder that scientific life in Hungary is paralyzed. During the revolution the great majority of the scientists and professors left the country. Just a little illustration: today in the U.S.A. in various universities and colleges more than 200 Hungarian professors are teaching. --

Those who remained home, many were removed from their position. Only those kept their jobs who were acceptable to the communist line, regardless of scientific past or knowledge.

This also characterizes the field of literature, the theatre and all branches of the art. Here also the "Moscowites" are in leading positions. Namely: Illes Bela, Gergely Sandor, Geller Oszkar, Varnai Zseni and "Writers Guild" leader, Boloni Gyorgy.

In the Theatrical life two names are dominating: Major Tamas, the old communist and the untalented actress, Simon Zsuzsa, directors of the Actors Academy. Under their direction they are producing party politic-filled, boring plays in empty theaters.

In the Concert Hall the situation is the same, only communist favored talents will get recognition. In the Press only the obedient party writer can exist.

Under such circumstances, the 150 year old Hungarian Academy of Science lost its traditional reputation. Their directors: Erdel Ferenc, Ortutai Gyula, Gutwein Magda who, with sadistic hate, are withering away the 1000 year old Hungarian Culture.

The falsification of the Hungarian history, an unparalleled disgracing of the past, is the current events of this year in Hungary. They wish to white-wash the 1919 proletarian dictator in Hungary with the celebration of a 40 year anniversary of the Terror Era, when the communists massacred thousands of Hungarians. They want to show their hero, the terrorist Samuely Tibor, the leader of the massacre, who openly professed it; that he wanted to see the entire Hungarian peasantry in one big grave.

This kind of celebration is the yardstick of the feelings and moral values of the communist leaders, like Kun Bela, Korvin Otto, Rakosi Matyas and the rest of them.

NEW SOCIAL SEPARATION

The culture-thirsty Hungarian mass, rejecting the immense quantity of brain-trash what the official party offers to them and taking out their jealously guarded old books, in which they are seeking spiritual satisfaction. What ever they have in confidential circles, they are exchanging, reading and discussing them.

If in the village or town, the people get hold of a western magazine or newspaper, it goes from hand to hand and they "live on it" for a long time. What ever comes from the West, it brings to them the breath of freedom.

In this kind of life the Hungarian Society is separated in two: One side, the great majority anti-communists and the other side a very small minority the communists or fellow travelers. In social contact, it no more counts "Who is who"; what counts is "How" one thinks about communism.

Naturally, everybody is cautious to express opinion in front of the Jews because the Hungarians do not trust them anymore. The Hungarians learned to be silent.

Here, we would like to give a warning to the decent Jewry. In the past and present, anti-semitism was caused always by the Jewish. Therefore, it is the solemn duty of the Jews to stop it before the entire Jewish population will be involved.

It is a real problem for the communist regime who will be the loyal soldier, once they have to defend Moscow?! During the revolution the Hungarian Army proved to be useless to the communists, as they refused to fire on their own people.

LEGALIZED ABORTION

In Hungary, there is a systematic Genocide going on, the most sinister, devilish, murdering of a Nation! What the communists couldn't kill with machine guns, they finished with abortion! A doctor writes, who is working in a Budapest Hospital,

WHY NOT GIVE A PATRIOTIC BOOK FOR CHRISTMAS?

We have just prepared an illustrated book list, which we have not been able to send to all our subscribers. If you are interested, please write for a copy.

that he must perform 30-40 abortions daily. The "enlightening" of the young women is going on in words, writings and on the operating table.

There are two reasons for this Genocide:

- 1 To solve the problems of overcrowded schools, the housing shortage and at the same time be able to pay the Soviet reparation demands.
- 2 This legalized, illegal operation not only kills the child but ruins or sterilizes the healthy Hungarian mother and weakens the strength of a valiant, rebellious people!

In conclusion, the Hungarians became condemned to death, disillusioned, robbed, invert people, which are sold to the reds by the West. The Hungarian people cannot believe in the West anymore, less in America who is the continuously retreating front of the Reds.

Who remembers today of the children of Budapest who were fighting with benzine bottles against Soviet Tanks? Who thinks in America that, by luring the communists step by step, someday will demand American children's blood just like in Budapest? ----

Why didn't the American people protest when the Butcher of Budapest, Ukraina, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Vietnam, Laos, Tibet, India etc., came to visit the U.S.? He is the one who said: "We will bury you! Your grandchildren will live under communism"

The captive Hungarian peoples other enemy is in their own emigrant ranks, the self-appointed political leaders. These politicians want to direct the political life of the emigrated Hungarians, scattered all over the world, without even asking the people in whose name they are speaking. These leaders, who are on the payroll of foreign interest, are already distributed for Government position of a future, free Hungary, among themselves.

Among this political adventurers, one can find, Marxist, fellow travelers, opportunists, and simple money-chasers. To mention one example: "Radio Free Europe." This is an American-supported organization, which does not serve Hungarian nor American, let alone, Free Europe interest. These selected politician commentators are making a good living on the expense of the American taxpayers, without any appreciable moral result. The hundreds of thousands of Hungarian emigrants see this and turn away from it, but cannot do anything, because of lacking money and proper connections.

If anybody speaks up, or tries to organize a National platform, they will quickly get the "Fascist" label; which in America is as strong a scare-slogan as "Anti-semitism." But the Hungarian emigrants know that against Athiest, Money and Political-Internationalism only the God believing, National, Worldview is the strongest counter part.

A PETITION TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Dear President, when you go to the Soviet Union and will see a model house, a modern factory, a modern collective farm or a luxurious prison, do not believe that it is that way all over the country. Do not forget, what the Soviet leaders will let you see, is the only one what they show to every foreigner. After all it's made for that! Of course, it is just polite to believe that the rest of them are the same!

Mr. President, please ask them to show you the prisoners camps, where between 20 and 40 million people mainly political prisoners or innocent people are kept and whose work is the foundation of the Soviet Economical life. These camps can be found in Vorkuta, Karaganda, Sverdlovsk, Kulima, in Siberia or far North,—and you'll see what the bolshevik leaders will answer!

In closing, Mr. President, tell the Russians, the American governments firm decision, that they will never give up liberating the enslaved nations, especially the Hungarian people, who gave the most magnificent sacrifices for a better world.

MARXIST IMMIGRATION THREAT TO U. S.

By Franklin Hichborn

The purpose of the persistent minority opposing effective immigration laws is to open our gates. Mr. Abner Green, original name Abraham Greenberg, Executive of the "American Committee for the Foreign Born," in such articles as "Immigration Rules Inspired by Hitler," which have appeared in the Communist Daily Worker, are to that end. Mr. Eugene Lyons' "The Refugee Residue; a Free-World Failure," published in Reader's Digest May last, makes the same appeal. Mr. Lyons is a member of the Zellerbach Commission, which, like the Green organization, urges that it is our duty to admit more refugees. Over the years, the minority has urged curious procedures.

In the 77th Congress, First Session (1941) for example, Congressman Dickstein, introduced House Bill 2791, to admit to Alaska refugees to "the total of all unused quotas of all countries, for the last six years," with the provision that "No such immigrant colonist shall be permitted to emigrate to the Continental United States for at least five years from the date of his arrival in Alaska." This scheme failed.

A "safe guard" of another drive proposed that the country of origin of the additional admittees must agree to take them back if they proved undesirable.

Another scheme, providing that no additional refugee should be admitted unless a responsible person or organization guarantees that he shall not become a public charge, was more successful. Thousands have been admitted under such guarantees. California's Attorney General (now Governor) Edmund G. Brown stated in an interview in the Oakland (California) Tribune (July 27, 1957) that some 750 such immigrants are in California's mental hospitals at a cost to the taxpayers of $750,000 a year. California, in a test case, sued in New York to recover $4,721 for four years' care of a refugee in a California mental hospital. Judge Henry Silverman threw the case out of court, on the ground that the guarantee constituted a moral obligation only, not a legal obligation, and was therefore not collectible. The San Francisco Examiner (October 13, 1957) stated that Judge Silverman's decision freed from obligation the sponsors of nearly 6,000,000 immigrants.

PRAYERS FOR CAPTIVE NATIONS

— By J. Kester Kahn —

As Americans pray for the peoples of the Captive Nations, let us hope they include Palestine in their prayers. For Palestine is truly a captive nation. Many of its people have been exiled. Those that remain within the borders are kept under strict martial law.

Just as International Communism refuses to recognize the rights of the people in the nations it holds captive, International Zionism refuses to recognize the claims and rights of the peoples of the lands it holds captive.

HAS THE METHODIST CHURCH GONE MAD?

By A. H. McGregor

The Methodist church had sound doctrines in its beginning. Of late some of these have been twisted, assailed and "explained" to the thorough confusion of the membership. Our church is doing some mighty good work but too many of its leaders and writers are feeding us unsound and un-American doctrines. After years of study with an open mind I have concluded that our church is being used by the very enemy we are pledged to fight. To keep silent in the face of what I have learned would be bordering on hypocrisy.
